Gets Card From Man in Frison

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—A prosecutor here received a Christmas card Tuesday from a man he sent to prison.

The outside of the card, decorated with the usual bells and wreaths, begins, "Christmas would be so much better this year..."

On the inside, it continues: "If only I were there, "Or you were here."

STORM STRIKES (from page one)

In the Edgemont community on Greers Ferry Lake in Cleburne County, damaging eight to 10 house trailers, two homes and a country store.

One person, Mrs. Garland S. Campbell, 56, of Leilbourn, Mo., who was visiting in one of the house trailers, was hospitalized at Heber Springs but she was not believed seriously hurt.

There were unconfirmed reports that several other persons might have suffered minor injuries in the two storms.

Meanwhile, large areas of the state were placed under tornado watches as a strong cold front advanced across the state. The Weather Bureau said the threat of a few tornadoes would exist in 36 Arkansas counties until 1 p.m. today.

The greatest threat of tornadoes and severe thunderstorms existed in an area 60 miles either side of a line from 30 miles west of Little Rock eastward as far as Illinois. Heavy rain showers with winds gusting at 50 miles an hour were expected to accompany thunderstorms forecast to move through the Little Rock area by noon.

The storm in the Fort Smith area appeared to come in over the Arkansas River and strike a northeasterly course from the downtown area. Jim Huff, Weather Bureau meteorologist in Fort Smith, described the storm as a tornado.

Sid Bailey, 75, and his wife, 74, of near Van Buren were injured when winds toppled their trailer. Both were treated at Crawford County Hospital and released.

The storm hit the Fort Smith area shortly before 6 a.m. in the downtown area, it blew out plate glass windows and ripped the roof off a large furniture store.

It ripped the roof off one segment of a motel, picked up part of the roof of a rest home and set them both down on top of a restaurant, crushing the restaurant roof.

The storm ripped up trees, flattened signs, snapped telephone and electric poles and tore off the roofs of other buildings. It picked up three outboard boats at the Baker Marine Co. and blew them about three blocks, wrapping one around a tree.

Power in the north section of the city was knocked out when the storm hit. Television station KLSA-TV in Fort Smith suffered water damage after part of its roof was blown off.

After leaving Fort Smith, the storm set down east of Van Buren on Highway 71. The Baileys live in a house trailer about six miles east of Van Buren.

Confident of Bill to Approve Davis

By ROBERT L. SHAW Associated Press Writer

The Rockefeller administration is confident of legislative approval of a proposed bill to qualify Lynn A. Davis as State Police director, but a survey by The Associated Press indicates storm clouds might be on the horizon.

Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller apparently has good reason to be confident that the special session of the legislature that will receive the bill early next year will pass it with little difficulty. Davis has cut a popular figure in the state after becoming director in August, demonstrated by the outcry over his jailing Dec. 5-6.

A sampling by the AP of 22 legislators, however, indicates less enthusiasm for the proposed bill.

To a question of whether they would support a bill to make Davis eligible, 10 legislators answered "yes," six were opposed and six said they would first have to see the measure.

Three of the "no" votes were cast by lawmakers from Garland County, which has felt the full impact of Davis' tenure, and the fourth was from a frequent Rockefeller critic, Sen. Guy H. "Mutt" Jones of Conway.

Rep. James O. Stevens of Pine Bluff, however, spoke in terms that summed up the feelings of some pro-Davis legislators when he said that retaining Davis would carry out "the wishes of the large majority of our people."

"Laws are made to be enforced and that is exactly what Mr. Davis has been doing," Stevens said. "It is my opinion that no gambling bills will be submitted to the legislature for years to come because it has been proven to the legislators and to the people that it gambling can be controlled by the State Police and this is as it should have been in the past."

Davis' opposition apparently hokes something of a fight for Rockefeller, especially in the Senate, where the governor already has encountered the fervor of legislative opposition to his appointments.

"The strength of our system of government is in the government of laws, not of men," said she is completely dead." His daughter, Denise Ann, suffered fatal brain damage when struck by a car Dec. 2 and Darvall gave immediate permission for her heart to be used in the transplant.

"I'll pull through," Washkansky kept insisting after the operation.

The surgical team headed by Prof. Christian N. Barnard had watched closely for two expected dangers—the body's tendency to reject foreign tissue and, because of drugs to fight that tendency, the stripping away of many of the body's natural defenses against infection.

After almost two weeks of steady progress, Washkansky developed lung complications last weekend and his condition slowly deteriorated. The doctors first suspected pneumonia, then thought perhaps the rejection tendency was working—not against the grafted heart but against Washkansky's own tissues.

Not knowing exactly what they were up against made the treatment more difficult, they said.

Shortly before Washkansky died, a spokesman for Groote Schuur Hospital said: "His heart is still beating strongly but it is the lungs that are the cause of his critical state. The doctors are fighting for his life but there is very little hope."

A respirator was used in efforts to assist his breathing. Shortly after Washkansky died, his 41-year-old wife, Ann, entered the hospital weeping. Her brother, Solly Sklar, and Washkansky's brother, Tevya, accompanied her.

Washkansky had been considered an excellent prospect for a heart transplant. His own badly fibrosed heart had been expected to quit two weeks ago, and his wife said when doctors suggested a transplant "he snapped up the chance, not even making use of the two days Prof. Barnard gave him to think it over."

"This man's will to live is fantastic," Barnard said. This was one major requirement.

The other, a donor, was filled when Miss Darvall was fatally injured.

Rep. Ray S. Smith Jr. of Hot Springs says he believes the Senate will be "very hesitant" to pass legislation making Davis eligible. He says his opposition is not "playing politics" but that he believes the 1945 legislature that passed the residency requirement under which the state Supreme Court disqualified Davis intended that the director be a resident of the state for 10 years before his appointment.

"It is my belief that a change in the law at this time would produce wider effects than just a matter of making Mr. Davis eligible to serve as head of the State Police," said another opponent, Rep. F. L. "Hugh" Beasley of Hot Springs.

Simple Solution for Last Minute Gifts Is to Buy New Books

By HAL BOYLE NEW YORK (AP) — Are you getting a bit frantic now about doing some last-minute Christmas shopping for presents for deserving acquaintances or suddenly remembered friends?

There is no reason for blind panic. The solution is simple. Just go to the nearest bookstore and buy a few books.

A good book is always an appropriate present. If you send it to someone who can't read, it flatters his vanity; if he can read, it will help keep him informed and stir in him a lasting gratitude. He may even lend you the book back so that you can read it, too.

Books, of course are handy in many ways. They are great things to impress visitors with or to hide behind when your wife is trying to start an argument and you are feeling too weak to defend yourself. And a good stout dictionary is as good a platform as you can find to stand upon while reaching up to pull down a stuck window blind.

Yes, there is no end to the uses books can be put to. But the selection of the right book for the right person is all-important.

For example, here—all in fun—is a suggested list of books suitable for certain celebrities:

"Incredible Victory"—The Los Angeles Rams.

"Last Reflections on a War"—Robert S. McNamara.

"The Deserted House"—Lyndon Johnson.

"The Chosen"—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, Gov. George Romney, Gov. Richard Reagan, County); Mrs. Marguerite Turner of El Dorado (Union County), and Franklin H. Waters of Springdale (Washington County).

Purcell said the votes didn't count because there wasn't a quorum present, but Pollard said the Republicans had accomplished their purpose.

A transcript of the meeting, recorded word for word by a court reporter, Mrs. Cletie Havens, will be incorporated into a lawsuit that is to be appealed to the Arkansas Supreme Court, Pollard said.

Britt said that the election commission now could present the court with a "complete package" of the issues, rather than submitting the dispute in "bits and pieces."

Purcell contended that the session only emphasized the impasse that had existed since August, when the Democrats turned down the same GOP nominees and named their own choices by 6-2 votes.

This Citizen Was Helpful

NAPA, Calif. (AP) — Seeing their duty, two citizens in a car flagged down a NAPA County sheriff's deputy Wednesday to inform him of another driver creating a disturbance nearby.

The deputy got back in his cruiser, but it wouldn't start. At his request, one of the Samaritans pushed the officer to the scene of the disturbance. The deputy made an arrest—but again his car wouldn't start.

Again the helpful motorist gave a push, this time to the county jail.

BUTTE, Mont. (AP) — Three little brothers sing Christmas carols for pennies in the streets of Butte to buy presents for their strikebound family.

Mrs. Clifford Gustavsen, who is pregnant with her eighth child, counts food stamps and a $10 weekly union food coupon and says "It's going to be pretty hungry around here this Christmas."

line either. I learned later I was just another experience to him.—THE SCALP THAT GOT AWAY

Dear Scalp: So glad you were wise to this junior playboy, though for sure he won't nominate me as "columnist of the year."

Anyway, this schemer gets points for class—champagne at a drive-in! Wow!—H.

Dear Helen: I feel for that boy whose father nagged him about being fat. I was a big girl and my older sister was small for her age. Because we were the same size, my parents harped at me not to eat this or that because I'd become a fat slob and nobody would like me. I started to sneak goodies, I hated being watched, so I wouldn't eat much at the table, but I'd stuff myself when I was alone. Well, I ended up being fat and unhappy. All I thought of was how fat I was. I fed my misery and it made me more miserable.

Now the happy ending. I've been married six months and have lost 25 pounds. My wonderful husband said he'd love me even if he had to widen the doors. I can promise you that will never happen. Because of his attitude, I'm relaxed and not nervous anymore, and I don't need solitary eating.

It's too bad I blamed my folks because I see now they were only trying to help. I hope you print this so that other parents can get a closer look at what they might be doing to their children.—MRS. M.C.M.

Dear Helen: About the girl whose pierced ears wouldn't heal, I had mine done this summer and instead of using alcohol I used peroxide. So did my sisters. Our niece had hers done at the same time, using alcohol to bathe them, and she said ours looked better in three days than hers did in a month. The jeweler advised us to use the drop earrings if our ears were not healed so that air would get to them. Of course we had the little gold ring put in when they were pierced. We still use the peroxide several times a day. There isn't as much peeling.—MARY

YOUR HELPING HANDS PART-MENT.

Dear Helen: Six months ago a truck hit a 12-year-old boy and his arm and leg were very badly broken. He will be in the hospital probably until after Christmas, and then will have to learn to walk all over again. It's been a long, hard pull and I'm sure a few of your readers' extra Christmas cards would make the holidays happier for him. He is: Gary Miller, Coatesville Hospital, Coatesville, Penna., 19320.—CANDY-STRIPER FRIEND

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The portrait of a man descending to insanity was powerfully presented Wednesday night in CBS adaptation of Nikolai Gogol's "Diary of a Madman."

Roger Coggio, a French actor, was the solo performer in the hour special, a tour de force in his portrayal of a clerk in a 19th century Russian bureau. The drama started at the beginning of his breakdown as he began to imagine he was a suitor of his boss' daughter.

The next step came when he believed he heard a dog speak to him. Then one strange idea crowded another, and as he became more insane, he deteriorated physically as well. From a line in a newspaper, he was persuaded that he was the king of Spain, and his madness was complete.

The drama started with a slow pace, quickening as the subject sank into madness.

It was very effective. The cameras were used most imaginatively, showing the actor in closeup much of the time, but moving a lot around him in a way that suggested his confusion and turmoil.

The scene shifted from the sick man's plain lodgings at the beginning to a barred cell in a mad house. In the final scene, he was beseeching his mother for help, and then in an abrupt change of mood, burst out in a wild laugh. It was an impressive performance and a rather painful experience for the viewer. CBS was wise to postpone the commercials until the end and even the length of a cigarette seemed shockingly inappropriate. Earlier in the evening, the channels were full of the spirit of the holidays.

On "Hollywood Palace," ABC, Bing Crosby, his wife and three young children, all wearing Santa Claus beards were featured in his portrayal of a clerk in a 19th century Russian bureau. The drama started at the beginning of his breakdown as he began to imagine he was a suitor of his boss' daughter.

Then, on NBC, along came Milton Gaynor with a "Music Hall" Christmas show which also featured Santa Claus—Ed McMahon in a beard and singing "Have Yourself a Merry Little Christmas" slightly off key—and those wonderful Hollywood snow scenes. The high spot in the show was a Seroogee sketch with Cyril Ritchard playing a singing, dancing Ebenezer.

Miss Gaynor, an infrequent television performer, sings nicely and is a fine dancer. The show, however, was on the bland saccharine side.

It is nice that Christmas comes but once a year. A Christmas-loving viewer can get pretty tired of constantly hearing "Jingle Bells" and "The Little Drummer Boy" and seeing so many Santa Clauses with their phony Ho-Ho-Hos.

Recommended tonight: "The Dean Martin Show," NBC, 10-11 EST, with the entire Martin family and the Sinatras.

San Diego Leads Small College Poll

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Kentucky Wesleyan Panthers are likely to at least close the gap between themselves and leading San Diego State in the Associated Press' small-college basketball poll now that the Aztecs' unbeaten streak has gone by the boards.

San Diego State remained in the No. 1 spot in the latest poll based on games through last Saturday.

The Aztecs, though, were beaten by Indiana State 84-69 Monday night. Runner-up Kentucky Wesleyan overwhelmed Texas Wesleyan 113-57 the same evening.

In the latest balloting by a national panel of 14 sports writers and broadcasters, San Diego State received five votes for first place and 108 points. Kentucky Wesleyan had one first-place vote and 87 points.

Southwestern of Louisiana climbed two positions to third after defeating Northeastern, La., and Lamar Tech in last week's games.

San Diego State had a 4-0 mark, Kentucky Wesleyan was 4-1 and SW Louisiana 5-0 through Saturday's games.

Evansville holds down the No. 4 spot followed by Trinity, Tex., Indiana State, Long Island University, Winston-Salem, Akron and Cheyney State.

The Top Ten, with first-place votes in parentheses and total points on a 10-9-8-etc. basis:

1. San Diego St. (5) 108
2. Kentucky Wesleyan (1) 87
3. Southwestern, La. (3) 82
4. Evansville (1) 79
5. Trinity, Tex. (2) 77

Landry Has Respect for Cowboys

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Coach Tom Landry of the Dallas Cowboys expressed great respect for Cleveland's running game today although the Cowboys handled it well the last time the two teams met.

That, however, was in September, when Dallas held the Browns to a minus five yards. It also limited the heralded runners, Leroy Kelly and Ernie Green, to a total of 15 yards between them.

"They had little psychology going for them that day," Landry pointed out, "with Frank Ryan starting with a bad ankle and getting another before the day was out."

The Cowboys coach said there just was no comparison now, that Cleveland had a great running game, extra good punt returns and "if Ryan throws as well as expected they will have one of the best teams in football playing us."

He was speaking of Eunday's Eastern Conference playoff when the Cowboys will be trying to return to the National Football League finals.

Kelly will enter that game with the NFL rushing championship. He got it with 1,205 yards, Green, with 90 less tries, has racked up 710 yards.

The Cleveland team is the league rushing leader with 152.8 yards per game.

Murphy Is Called the Skidoo Kid

By TED MEIER

Associated Press Sports Writer
They're calling Calvin Murphy, college basketball's new high scoring leader, the Skidoo Kid.

Why? Because he wears uniform No. 23 for the University of Niagara Purple Eagles. It's a takeoff on the slang expression of yesterday — 23, skidoo.

Murphy, a 5-foot-10 sophomore, replaced Pistol Pete Maravich of Louisiana State as No. 1 major college scorer today in the latest NCAA statistics with a 45.6 point average.

The Skidoo Kid got 42 points against Cornell Wednesday night, but it wasn't enough to keep the Ivy League Big Red from winning 84-78. In fact, Murphy fouled out in the closing minutes and it was his man, Gregg Morris, who got loose for a side shot that broke a 61-61 tie and put Cornell ahead for good with seven minutes left.

Boston College, Tennessee and Bradley, the only teams in the Associated Press Top Ten to see action, each won handily. Eighth-ranked B.C., led by Bob Dukiel's 23 points, trounced North Carolina State 72-55 after Providence whipped LaSalle 77-56 in the first round of the Boston Garden Invitational.

Tennessee, ninth-ranked, made it 28 in a row at home as the Vols defeated Wake Forest 81-63 at Knoxville. Unbeaten Bradley, No. 10, won its eighth straight by routing San Diego State, No. 1 in the AP small college poll, 95-76 at Peoria.

Manhattan downed Bowling Green 74-64 and Marshall whipped Virginia 97-89 in the first round of the Marshall Invitational at Huntington, W. Va.

Wisconsin came from behind, paced by James Johnson's 27 points, and beat Florida 86-81 at Madison, Wis., in one of the top intercollegiate games.

Oilers Have Clinched a Tie for Title

By HAL BOCK

Associated Press Sports Writer
The Houston Oilers have clinched a tie for the American Football League's Eastern Division crown according to Hoyle, the football specialist, not the games expert.

Hoyle to the Oilers is hard-running Hoyle Granger, who has blossomed into one of the American Football League's top rushers.

Granger was named AFL Offensive Player of the Week by The Associated Press today after gaining 107 yards against San Diego in the 24-17 victory that insured Houston of no worse than a tie for the title.

He ran his season's total to 1,034 yards, only 73 short of Kansas City's Mike Garrett, who holds second place among the league's rushers. Garrett is finished for the season and Granger can overtake him Saturday night when the Oilers attempt to nail down the crown against Miami.

"We agreed in training camp that we were tired of losing," says Granger. "So the Oilers went about winning, with their attack molded around the sophomore running back's powerful legs."

Against the Chargers, Granger bolted for his fifth touchdown of the season and showed the running finesse he has picked up in two years as a pro. He was a rarely used rookie last season, carrying the ball only 51 times compared with 215 so far this season. But his 386 yards gained as a rookie showed promise and Coach Wally Lemm knew it. His 6.9 average was best among the top 20 rushers in the league last year.

76ers Score 53 Points in Final Quarter

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Philadelphia 76ers exploded for 53 points in the last quarter against Seattle and set a record in the National Basketball Association.

Big Will Chamberlain, with 53 points and 38 rebounds, helped the NBA champions erase the league mark for most points in one quarter in their 102-122 rout of the SuperSonics Wednesday night.

In the other games, all played on the West Coast also, New York whipped Los Angeles 138-131, San Francisco edged Detroit 113-109 and Boston downed San Diego 126-110.

Chamberlain made 14 consecutive field goals as the 76ers, ahead by only 65-59 at halftime, broke the game wide open in the second half against Seattle. The 53 points in the last quarter broke the previous NBA mark of 52 set by Boston against Minneapolis in Feb. 1973 and equaled by Baltimore against Detroit in Dec. 1967.

Willis Reed, with 33, Dick Barnett, with 26, and Butch Kowitz, with 22, combined for 83 points in New York's triumph over the Lakers at Los Angeles. Jerry West, with 32, and Elgin Baylor, with 26, gave the Lakers an 81-80 lead in the third period before the Knicks pulled away.

Prize rookie Bill Bradley hit the Knicks got four points in his first Coast appearance as a pro. Boston made it five in a row by downing San Diego behind 21 points by Larry Siegfried and 25 by Bill Russell.

49ers Fire Coach, No Successor

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) —

The San Francisco 49ers of the National Football League fired Coach Jack Christiansen on his 39th birthday Wednesday — and speculation swirled as to a possible successor.

The ax was not entirely unexpected following this season's 7-7 mark.

The names of two Christiansen assistants — Bill Johnson and Y.A. Tittle — have come up as possible successors.

Lou Spadia, president of the 49ers, gave Christiansen his notice at a meeting in Redwood City, and said he had not had any contacts concerning a possible successor — but would like to start talks soon.

Christiansen commented: "That happens to a coach if he doesn't win. Mr. Spadia gave no reason. He said things didn't work out like he hoped and he wanted a change."

"I had hoped to be given a chance to continue after we won our last two games."

He noted his record the past three years was 20-19-3 after taking the 49ers at the bottom from first Coach Red Hickey in 1963. He had a 2-9 mark the remainder of that season and was 4-10 in 1964.

Christiansen, whose salary was undisclosed, said he had no contract.

Soph 6'11" and He Is Growing

NEW YORK (AP) — Bob Lienhard, University of Georgia sophomore who is 6-11 and still growing, says he doesn't think there's anything the rules-makers can do to cut down high scoring.

"They talk about raising the baskets and making them smaller," the New York youngster, who played against UCLA's 7-11½ Lew Alcindor in high school, commented today. "No matter what they do, the fellows will find a new way to get the ball through the hoop."

Lienhard is averaging around 30 points and 22 rebounds a game for the Georgia Bulldogs, whose new emphasis on the game may bring them their first winning season in 18 years. Georgia is 3-1 at the moment.

The Bronx beanstalk is home for the holidays, and discussed Alcindor and the campaign against the tall men during an informal interview.

"I see Bob Cousy wants to make the baskets smaller," Lienhard said. "If they do, they'll score just as much."

"Tennessee experimented by raising the baskets to 12 feet but it only expanded the rebound area. The guys still pipped them in from the outside."

"The outside shot is one of the easiest in basketball."

Lienhard played against Alcindor when he, Lienhard, attended Rice High School in Harlem and Alcindor was enrolled at Power Memorial in Manhattan. Alcindor was a year ahead.

"Lew is the best basketball player I ever saw," Lienhard said. "I was young at the time but almost as tall as he was. He clobbered me."

"I think he'll clobber the pros, too."

Eight Raiders Named to All Star Game

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) —

Quarterback Daryle Lamoni and eight other players of the American Football League's Western champion Oakland Raiders were named today to the West team for the AFL All-Star game in Jacksonville's Gator Bowl Jan. 21.

Lamoni, the league's leading passer, will have four of the AFL's top receivers as targets — Lance Alworth of San Diego, Mike Garrett of Kansas City, Bearitt Dixon of Oakland and Al Benson of Denver.

The top 22 West All-Stars, announced by AFL President Art Woodward, include six each from Kansas City and San Diego and one from Denver in addition to the nine from Oakland.

Coach Lou Saban of Denver, who will coach the West, will pick an additional 11 players.

Green Bay Is Badly Crippled

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) —

The Green Bay Packers, for all their troubles, may be able to derive some comfort from Shakespeare's line, "Sweet are the uses of adversity."

The Packers have an imposing list of walking wounded for their showdown with the Los Angeles Rams in Milwaukee Saturday for the National Football League's Western Conference crown.

The defending champions have only two healthy running backs, Travis Williams and Chuck Mercein, and have dropped their last two games, including a 27-24 loss to the same Rams.

But they've been minus starting players before and have won the big games.

In 1962 halfback Paul Hornung, linebacker Ray Nitschke and end Bryd Dowler went into Army service and played intermittently after the fifth game, seeing action only when they could get permission to leave camp.

But that team racked up a 13-1 record and defeated the New York Giants 16-7 for the NFL title.

And two years ago, playing off Baltimore with Baltimore, quarterback Bart Starr was lost on the initial play, but Zeke Bratkowski piloted Green Bay from a 10-point deficit to a tie in regulation play and the Packers won on Don Chandler's field goal.

Coach Vince Lombardi's teams have rarely lost to the same team twice in a season — to Baltimore in 1959 and 1964 and to Chicago in 1963 — and they didn't take the crown either year.

Ryan Able to Work Out for Browns

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) —

Cleveland Browns quarterback Frank Ryan, one of the walking wounded last week, put in a hard workout here Wednesday and was pronounced ready to lead his team against Dallas Sunday for the Eastern Conference championship of the National Football League.

Ryan was the last to leave the field here after the Browns put in a heavy two-hour drill. He missed the Browns' game last week because of injury, but Browns officials said he and the rest of the team were fit and ready for drills.

The Browns arrived here Tuesday night for four days of practice in the Alamogordo City's balmy December weather. They'll leave Saturday for Dallas after a final workout here.

High Scorer Averaging 45.6 Points

NEW YORK (AP) — Calvin

Murphy of Niagara has taken over the lead in the individual major-college basketball scoring race with 45.6 points average per game, according to statistics released today by the NCAA.

Pete Maravich of Louisiana State is second with 45.6 points per game. Both averages are higher than any major collegian ever had at this stage of the season. Phil Pete led last week with a 47.0 average. Murphy was second at 45.0.

Elvin Hayes of Houston is third with a 35.7-point average. Joe Allen of Bradley leads the fielding percentage leaders with a .721 mark while Bob Demme of Oregon Washington tops free-throw shooters with a perfect mark, converting 22 of 22.

Red Sox Were Only Eighth in Pitching

BOSTON (AP) — Pitching and defense may be considered the key to championship baseball, but the Boston Red Sox took care of matters with their hitting in winning the American League pennant this year.

The Red Sox, who led the league in most hitting departments, finished eighth in club pitching with a combined 3.36 earned run average.

And, in the fielding department, the Red Sox finished next to last, beating out the lowly New York Yankees by just one percentage point for ninth place.

Official fielding records announced Wednesday by AL President Joe Cronin showed that the Red Sox committed 142 errors for a fielding mark of .957.

The fifth-place California Angels led the league with .982, Cleveland was second with .981, followed by Baltimore with .980 and Chicago with .979.

Brooks Robinson of the Baltimore Orioles led the league's regular third basemen for the seventh time with a fielding mark of .987.

Other individual leaders were first baseman Norm Cash of Detroit, .995, second baseman Boz Clarke of New York, .994, shortstop Eliezer Ted Philander of Minnesota, .995, and catcher Joe Mauer of Cleveland, .994.

A total of 57 pitchers posted 1,000 fielding averages in 1967 more games. Chicago's Joe Mauer was the leader, handling 82 chances cleanly.

The unlucky expert seemed more beaten down by the bludgeon of an unkind fate than ever before. He was almost too weak to tell us what happened to him, but nevertheless he did manage to come out with the pitiful story.

It seems he was playing rubber bridge with three people who had more money than bridge ability and that in spite of holding bad cards as he always does, he was a trifle ahead when he finally picked up the South hand.
Now for his tale of woe.

"Of course, East opened the bidding. My opponents always do, but I saw no reason to waste time with my big hand.
I jumped to four spades. West practically jumped out of his chair to double me but he always doubled that way.
East thought, shook his head
a couple of times, and finally passed.

"Somehow or other his worries didn't make me too happy. It looked as if West would be short in hearts and I would probably go down a trick or even two. On the other hand, if I could get East to five hearts, I would show a profit. Quick as a flash I redoubled.

West passed. He was happy about the whole thing.
Not so, East. He thought guilty, and almost but five hearts but finally passed with the air of a martyr being led to the stake.

"West opened the deuce of hearts. East took his ace and returned a heart for his partner to ruff. Next came three rounds of clubs with East trumping the third. Then East led another heart. West ruffed that also and I was down three before I could do anything but follow suit.

As we rushed off we could hear him muttering something about a slam on the next hand.
We didn't hear exactly, but we feel certain that it was bad and made against him.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

Christmas Is All-Year Giving of One's Self

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Nobody knows exactly how old Santa Claus is but all agree that he has had a long and useful life. What then is the secret of his longevity? I believe it is his kindly disposition, the fact that he never gets angry, his sense of humor (who else would give a tie to a clergyman?) and his wish to please others rather than himself. Despite his obvious years, he is young in heart and has an admirable zest for living. He welcomes change and never fails to come up with a new line of toys.

Too many of us waste valuable time worrying about material things and, as a result, become prematurely old. The chief value of Christmas should be to make us realize that there is more satisfaction in giving than in getting. The spirit of Christmas can, however, be spoiled if our gifts are thinly disguised bribes given in the hope of undeserved favors from the recipient.

The frantic last-minute shopper is more often than not a person driven to desperation by the necessity to make an unwilling gift. It is far better to give more of yourself throughout the year than to try to save your conscience
by doing out a few expensive gifts at Christmas.

"What is a syndrome?
What causes it? Is there any cure?"

A syndrome is a group of symptoms which occur together but are not characteristic of a definite disease. It is sometimes called a symptom complex. It is generally differentiated from a disease in that the latter is typified by a specific group of symptoms, chills, fever, headache and vomiting make up a syndrome seen in the onset of many acute infectious diseases. Add to these symptoms a certain

Missing Road Marker Lines
Produce Tragedy

This morning's highway tragedy when two out-of-state families were virtually wiped out by a collision on the Hope-Emmett section of U.S. 67 points up the vital importance of maintaining lane markers on all roads at all times.

The odds this morning were all against two ill-starred families. It was dark and drizzly. U.S. 67 had just been resurfaced and the center-line marker strip had not yet been replaced. There was a head-on collision and six violent deaths.

All motorists know that awful feeling when you sense you have lost your position on the roadway. Your main driving anchor is the center line. When that's gone you're like a dog without a nose.

In justice to our out-of-state dead it should be said that today's tragedy seems to be more the fault of the road than the drivers. Of course the drivers knew that night driving is more dangerous than day driving — but this is the year's greatest holiday season and folks have to travel to attend family reunions. They deserve the best safe-conduct our state can give them. But U.S. 67 dealt them a tragically bad break — a bitter Christmas memory for all their kinfolk.

Today's tragedy emphasizes a deficiency in our Arkansas highway marking system that this column has noted repeatedly in the past — normally we do maintain a center-line stripe, but neighboring Louisiana has always gone us one better and put down additional stripes marking the edge of the road. Thus you have two clearly-defined driving lanes — and the night driver can place his car accurately with respect to oncoming traffic.

I first discovered this on a night run on U.S. 71 between Alexandria and Bossier City. Lately Arkansas has begun to copy Louisiana's highway markings — but not soon enough to prevent a major tragedy in our own county today.

Reds Return Yule Packages for Prisoners

WASHINGTON (AP) — North Vietnam has curtly returned 231 Christmas packages sent by wives and parents to American fighting men held prisoners by Hanoi, the Pentagon announced today.

Daniel Z. Henkin, a member of the Defense Department's Prisoner of War Policy Committee, told newsmen the 231 packages reached North Vietnam through international postal channels and were returned the same way bearing the "cruel notation, 'refused by the postal service of North Vietnam.'"

"The persistent refusal of the Hanoi government to deliver Christmas parcels is another shocking manifestation of callous disregard for the rights of prisoners of war under the Geneva Convention," Henkin said. Henkin noted the same thing happened last year.

"If there had been hopes that the Hanoi regime would act with humanitarian consideration for the prisoners of war it holds and for their loved ones at this holiday season, these hopes have been dashed," he said.

In one group of 37 returned packages, Henkin said cigarettes, tobacco, gum and candy had been removed. Asked whether the pilfering was done "by them or by us," Henkin replied: "I don't know."

He said scores of other packages have been sent to North Vietnam by American families of war prisoners and that it appears now they are likely to be returned by Hanoi.

Democrats Walk Out of Meeting

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller was surprised.

"Joe, Joe, wait a minute. We haven't recessed," he said.

But Atty. Gen. Joe Purcell stalked out of the state Election Commission meeting Wednesday.

Following him were the other five Democrats on the commission — state Democratic Party Chairman Leon Catlett, state Treasurer Nancy J. Hall, state Auditor Jimmie "Red" Jones, state Land Commissioner Sam Jones and Secretary of State Kelly Bryant.

Bryant, the last to leave, carried off all the commission minutes and records.

The walkout, which Purcell later said was unplanned, was designed to block Republican efforts to build a stronger legal case for GOP control of county election commissions next year.

It may or may not have succeeded. Rockefeller, the chairman, continued the meeting and permitted the other GOP members to elect Republicans to vacancies on eight county election commissions.

Lt. Gov. Maurice Britt and state Republican Party Chairman Odell Pollard voted 2-0 for Frank Ellis of DeWitt (Arkansas County); F. S. Garrison of Harrison (Boone County); T. S. Dalkey of Lake Village (Chicot County); Mrs. Maxine Gresham Reed of Fordyce (Dallas County); T. O. Porter of Hope (Hempstead County); Chester Andres of Nashville (Howard County).

Man With New Heart Died of Infection, Post Mortem Reveals

By DAVID J. PAINE
Associated Press Writer
CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP) — A post mortem today showed that Louis Washkansky died of a severe localized infection of the lungs, and his transplanted heart worked well until the very end, his anesthetist reported today.

Washkansky, relieved from fatal heart disease by the world's first human heart transplant 18 days ago, died earlier today after five days of fighting lung complications.

The anesthetist, Dr. J. Ozinsky, said both Washkansky's lungs were affected by patches of pneumonia caused by a very virulent form of germ.

The infection had spread below the chest "in a small way," but Washkansky was otherwise "as clear as a whistle," the doctor said.

Ozinsky said the post mortem vindicated the principle of heart transplants.

Washkansky, except for periods of sleep, remained conscious most of Wednesday night and his pulse rate was strong until just before death, Ozinsky said. The anesthetist said he spent the night at Washkansky's bedside giving him artificial respiration.

Four Members of a Family Killed, Two Others Are Critical

Six persons were killed early this morning and two others were critically injured in a two-car, head-on collision in a misty rain on U.S. Highway 67 about six miles east of Hope.

The crash occurred about 2 a.m. on the crest of a hill near Emmet.

State Trooper Robert Neal said a car driven by Dorothy Ritz, 49, of Jacksonville, Ill., veered to the opposite side of the two-lane highway and crashed head-on with a car driven by Robert Timbrook, 39, of Chester, Texas.

Both drivers were among those killed.

Neal listed the other victims as Dr. O. J. Ritz, 51, husband of Dorothy Ritz; Carrie Parks Timbrook, 39, wife of the other driver; and two of their children, Tim, 13 and Billie Jean, 5. Dr. Ritz was a minister of the Seven Day Adventist Church.

Two other Timbrook children are in a local hospital, Lynn, 12, sustained broken ribs and internal injuries but is given a chance to recover. Carrie, 6, is very critical, sustaining head and internal injuries.

Both local funeral homes sent ambulances to the scene. Five bodies are at Herndon Funeral Home and one at Oakcrest Funeral Home.

Assisting in the investigation was Deputy Sheriff Herbert Griffin who described the accident as the "worst I have ever seen."

State Trooper Neal investigated three more accidents this morning. Before daylight on Highway 67 an auto driven by James R. Gilbert hit a bridge abutment causing an estimated $300 to $400 damage. Gilbert, blinded by the lights of another car, was not hurt.

The autopsy on the 53-year-old wholesale grocer's body could influence plans the surgical team at Cape Town's Groote Schuur hospital had made for more heart transplants early next year.

Shortly after Washkansky's operation, a Brooklyn, N.Y., heart surgeon, Dr. Adrian Kantrowitz, performed a transplant on a 2½-week-old boy but the new heart failed after six hours. Kantrowitz said he could not explain the failure of the operation but he still believed in the procedure.

"I feel completely empty," said Edward Darvall, father of the 2½-year-old girl whose healthy heart replaced Washkansky's failing organ in the historic operation. "After the operation there was at least part of my daughter still alive in Mr. Washkansky. But now

187 American Troops Killed Last Week

SAIGON (AP) — Allied and enemy casualties in the Vietnam war both dropped last week, the U.S. and South Vietnamese command reports today.

The U.S. Command said 187 Americans were killed in action and 932 wounded in the seven-day period ending last Saturday at midnight. The week before 278 U.S. troops were reported killed and 1,643 wounded.

South Vietnamese military headquarters reported 278 government troops were killed last week and 641 wounded. A week previous these totals had been 380 and 864. The Vietnamese reported 179 men missing last week, however, compared with 59 a week earlier.

Enemy casualties last week were put at 1,685 killed, down from 1,818 a week earlier.

The report raised to 15,646 the number of Americans reported killed in action in the war and the reported total of American wounded to 97,078. Of the total wounded, a U.S. spokesman said, 45,878 did not require hospitalization.

The summary reported that as of midnight Saturday there were 472,000 American military personnel in South Vietnam. This included the arrival last week of elements of the 101st Airborne Division but did not include the arrival this week of the 4,300-man 11th Infantry Brigade.

The U.S. Command's weekly estimate of enemy strength in South Vietnam was the same as the week before: military strength between 223,000 and 248,000, political workers between 75,000 and 85,000.

Mayor Finally Pays Debt

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Mayor Don Jones, taken for a ride by a young Missouri gambler in October, finally has paid his debt.

Jones said he lost a poker game wager of 16,000 matchsticks to 8-year-old Patrick J. Egan, son of Florissant, Mo., Mayor James Egan, during a World Series trip to St. Louis.

Jones later forgot about the L.O.U. but a letter last week from the boy said, in essence, "Where are my matchsticks?"

The mayor learned matches cannot be sent through the mail, so he bought 16,000 toothpicks, about a $5 value, and shipped them this week.

"He's a real cute kid and he taught me never to play poker again with a young freshman," Jones said.

Tornadoes Kill 3 in Missouri

POTOSI, Mo. (AP) — Three persons were killed and more than 25 injured today when a tornado or tornadoes struck southeastern Missouri, the Missouri Highway Patrol said.

The patrol said the three deaths occurred at Potosi where a tornado swept slowly through the area causing extensive damage that extended into the community of Cadet five miles northeast.

The dead were not identified. Potosi's city hall, power plant, a shopping center and several homes were damaged or destroyed, troopers reported. At least 20 persons in the community of 3,000 were hospitalized.

The tornado struck as thunderstorms and high winds lashed widely scattered sections.

The patrol said a tornado damaged 15 to 18 homes, destroyed several barns and other farm buildings and knocked down power and telephone lines late Wednesday night between Willow Springs and Burnham in extreme southern Missouri. Several persons were reported injured, none seriously.

Today a tornado hit near the communities of Viburnum and Bixby in the Clark National Forest. The patrol said at least four persons were injured, one at Bixby and three at Viburnum. Several homes were damaged, power lines and trees downed.

The Weather Bureau said communities suffering damage are located on a line extending from southern Missouri northeast toward the Missouri-Illinois border. Potosi is in the center of the largest lead mining district in the world, about 80 miles southwest of St. Louis.

The severe weather reached northeast across Illinois to Randolph. High winds or a possible tornado took the roof off a night club and bowling alley near Jerseyville, about 40 miles north-east of St. Louis.

Two Accidents Investigated

Two accidents were reported by City Police yesterday, one at Main and Avenue D involving cars driven by George Witherspoon and Patrick Cooley, investigating officer Joe McCulley charged Witherspoon with failure to have proper brakes on his vehicle.

On West Second a car driven by Calvin Cheatham and a scooter ridden by James Fravel collided. Fravel sustained bruises but was not seriously hurt. Investigating Officer Jesse Brown charged Cheatham with failure to yield the right-of-way.

Finally Gets a Name

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Three months after her birth, Claudia Parks' baby aardvark has a name. The long-nosed, badly wrinkled little animal will be known as Ardy.

Zoo officials chose the name from 1,405 entries submitted in a nationwide contest. The winning entry was submitted by a Miami ninth grader, Jackie Edmond.

Storms Strike Hope and Other State Sections

High winds, followed by heavy rainfall lashed this city at mid-morning Thursday leaving litter in its path.

The storm struck suddenly and when it subsided in only a few minutes the streets were filled with litter. Many plate windows were shattered in downtown stores, roofs were peeled back, others damaged, telephone and electrical wires were down and trees toppled in some areas.

A check with officials, including Chief of Police A. S. Willis, revealed no injuries were reported.

It was windy here all during last night and early morning. About 9:30 a.m. the wind suddenly picked up velocity and skies darkened. The air was carrying litter everywhere. Suddenly the rain hit and in only a few minutes it was over with.

A storm described as a tornado cut a path through Fort Smith and hit an area of nearby Crawford County this morning, causing moderate to heavy property damage. Two persons were treated at a Van Buren hospital for minor injuries.

Missiles Miss U.S. Bombers

SAIGON (AP) — Communist gunners fired three SAM missiles Wednesday night at a flight of U.S. B52 bombers attacking the demilitarized zone, but all three of the Soviet-built rockets missed, the U.S. Command reported.

It was the first time the U.S. Command has made a combat report of Red efforts to get the high-flying, eight-engine Superfortresses with the Russian surface-to-air missiles. Washington reported earlier Communist efforts in September and October, without giving details, when the Pentagon denied a Russian claim that SAMs had downed one of the American high-altitude bombers.

The Communist forces are known to have long yearned for a crack at the strategic bombers with the high-altitude SAMs — the missiles that downed an American U2 over the Soviet Union — and they have repeatedly attempted to slip the missiles far enough south.

By Wednesday night they had a missile site secretly in operation about 10 miles north of the demilitarized zone between North and South Vietnam. When their radar scopes picked up the bombers, the Red gunners unloaded three SAMs.

U.S. officers said the 500-mile-an-hour bombers, flying about six miles up, had about 30 seconds to complete evasive action after their own radar picked up the missiles streaking up at them.

LBJ, Thieu Policies 'Consistent'

By FRANK CORMIER
Associated Press Writer

CANBERRA, Australia (AP) — President Nguyen Van Thieu of South Vietnam met here tonight with President Johnson and publicly agreed that Johnson's latest suggestions for promoting peace in Vietnam "were fully consistent" with the policy of his government.

Johnson and Thieu issued a joint statement following a working dinner which sought to dispel any idea the two leaders were in conflict over possible informal talks with representatives of the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front.

The joint statement said Thieu "reaffirmed willingness to discuss relevant matters with any individuals now associated with the so-called National Liberation Front, while making it clear that his government could not regard the front as an independent organization in any sense."

Johnson, in a taped television interview in Washington Tuesday, said "I have said that I think the war can be stopped in a matter of days if President Thieu's suggestion that he informally talk with members of the NLF are carried out, and if they would agree to what they have already agreed to in the 1954 accords and 1962 accords, and other points I mentioned — like one man, one vote under the present constitutional government."

Thieu was interpreted as taking a counterstroke to Johnson's remarks by saying, on his departure from Saigon for Australia, where the two leaders have joined others to attend memorial rites Friday for Prime Minister Harold E. Holt, lost in a weekend swimming accident.

Johnson received assurances from Australia's interim prime minister that its pro-American Vietnam policy won't change.

He had a dinner meeting with Thieu at the U.S. Embassy.

LBJ Assured Australia Has Same Policy

CANBERRA, Australia (AP) — President Johnson received assurances today from Australia's interim prime minister that its pro-American Vietnam policy won't change, then prepared for a long working dinner tonight with South Vietnamese President Nguyen Van Thieu.

Johnson set aside nearly two hours for the dinner meeting at the U.S. Embassy with Thieu who, like Johnson and leaders of other nations allied in the Vietnam war, came to Australia for services Friday memorializing Prime Minister Harold E. ## Action of Court Not Surprising

By BARRY SCHWEID
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — It came as no surprise this week when the Supreme Court refused to stand in the way of Capt. Dale E. Neyd's court-martial.

However active the court may be in other areas, it is anything but eager to joust with the military or to give its views on the Vietnam war.

A hearing for Neyd, charged with refusing to help train pilots for Vietnam duty, almost inevitably would have involved the 34-year-old officer's claim that the country is engaged in a "war of aggression."

And this, clearly, is a thicket the court does not want to get tangled in.

From the earliest days the court either has turned aside those who challenged war actions by the president and Congress or ruled against the challengers.

It's been no different with the Vietnam war.

On four separate occasions this term and last, draft resisters and soldiers who regard the war as illegal failed in their quest for hearings.

And although the court will decide before June if the law authorizing the jailing of draft card burners is constitutional, the ruling need not pass on the legality of the war.

This reluctance appears to disturb at least two justices, William O. Douglas and Potter Stewart.

Stewart, a highly pragmatic jurist, said in a dissenting opinion last month the war has raised "hard and deeply troubling questions" and "the court should squarely face them."

And Douglas, in a dissent last March, noted "there is a considerable body of opinion that our actions in Vietnam constitute the waging of an aggressive war." He said legal questions raised by the war should be answered.

But the majority, without saying why, does not agree.

The tradition that the courts should not interfere with the president's power to make military decisions goes back to 1807.

That year the Supreme Court upheld conviction of a New York state legislator who had refused to be called into federal service. Justice Joseph Story said the authority to determine whether a military emergency exists belongs exclusively to the president.

In 1867 Chief Justice Salmon P. Chase said, "The president is the sole organ of the nation in respect to foreign and military affairs and that he alone has the right to declare a military emergency and to suspend the writ of habeas corpus."

In 1967 Chief Justice Warren said, "The president is the sole organ of the nation in respect to foreign and military affairs and that he alone has the right to declare a military emergency and to suspend the writ of habeas corpus."

war was declared.

Even extreme exercises of wartime powers have been upheld.

For instance, in 1944 the court ruled constitutional an order excluding all persons of Japanese ancestry—including U.S. citizens—from the West Coast "military area."

No less a defender of civil liberties than Justice Hugo L. Black delivered the decision. He said "when under conditions of modern warfare our shores are threatened by hostile forces, the power to protect must be commensurate with the threatened danger."

Justice Felix Frankfurter, concurring in the decision, probably best expressed the court's traditional stance.

"The validity of action under the war power must be judged wholly in the context of war," he wrote. "That action is not to be stigmatized as lawless because like action in times of peace would be lawless."

First Snow Three Years

PORTLAND, Ore., AP — The Portland area got its first real snowfall in three years this week and it drew mixed reactions.

"We needed the snow because of the dry summer," said William Steeking, a high school teacher.

But Richard Foxman, a salesman, felt otherwise.

"To play my golf, I got stuck in a snowbank for more than two hours and I was late for an appointment. This morning I ran out of fuel in the furnace, the starter on my car froze and I slipped and fell on the sidewalk breaking in the milk," Foxman told an inquiring reporter.

WINDOW ROCK, Ariz., (AP)

Navajo officials saw a ray of optimism today in their battle to stave off starvation and illness among tribal members hit by a series of severe snow storms.

But, the weather remained the key item.

"If it snows and blows, all predictions are off," said Graham Holmes, Bureau of Indian Affairs area director.

Many Navajos were being admitted to hospitals on or near the reservation suffering from pneumonia, exposure and respiratory ailments brought on by the cold weather. A U.S. Public Health Service official said most of the hospitals were at near capacity.

"We're abating some of the ones who are less ill," said Dr. George Beck, PHS facilities director, "and the more severely ill can be flown out to peripheral hospitals if needed."

Holmes said the "death rate has held remarkably well," considering the conditions. Officials said there had been only three deaths attributable to the storm which first struck the nation's largest Indian reservation Dec. 17.

But tribal Chairman Raymond Nakai and Holmes said there has been no reported cases of starvation among the estimated 17,000 Navajos living on the reservation, which is the largest of the Navajo, Hopi and Pima tribes in Arizona.

Navajo are in need of food and fuel.

"We've got enough food, or food available, for the next three to four days if the weather doesn't turn bad," said Holmes.

Nakai said there still is no indication the reservation will be declared an emergency area by the federal government. He wants the designation to enable utilization of heavy snow-removal equipment to open snow blocked roads.

Holmes said several federal agencies, including the Department of the Interior, the National Parks Service and the U.S. Forest Service are helping to move in snow-removal equipment. He said some pieces were expected to reach the reservation late today.

Nakai and Holmes said the Navajos are losing a lot of livestock.

Hay drops by CIOs working out of Phoenix were scheduled for the second straight day in the western part of the reservation which Nakai said has been hardest hit by the thigh-high snow.

Air Force rescue helicopters went forth again with more food drops to the remote sections of the reservation which extends into New Mexico, Arizona and Utah.

Surplus food, blankets and coats were being airlifted from Phoenix.

Says Johnson Misunderstands Opponents

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy says President Johnson misunderstands his opponents of the Vietnam war and compounded confusion over the issue in his television-radio interview this week.

The Minnesota Democrat, who says he'll run as an antiwar candidate in several 1968 presidential primaries, issued a statement Wednesday asking for equal time from the three major networks carrying the presidential interview on Tuesday night.

The networks had no immediate comment.

McCarthy disagreed with what he called Johnson's suggestion he's power hungry or a conspirator working for Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., another war policy critic.

"I think the President misunderstands me and greatly misunderstands what is troubling so many decent Americans," McCarthy said. He added the Johnson interview "only compounds the confusion of the administration's objectives in this ever-widening struggle."

Johnson, asked during the interview to comment on speculation that McCarthy is running to generate support for Kennedy, replied: "I do know of the interest of both of them in the presidency and the ambition of both of them," but said he didn't know just what they would do or whether they would act in concert.

McCarthy denied "I am challenging him for the presidency because of some sort of ambition for power on my part, or, alternatively, that I am engaged in a conspiracy."

Kennedy, on a skiing holiday in Sun Valley, hasn't been available for comment on the Johnson interview.

McCarthy and Kennedy aren't the only Democrats opposed to Johnson's Vietnam policy, according to a survey by the Charleston (W.Va.) Gazette.

The newspaper said today it polled more than 2,800 delegates to the 1964 Democratic national convention and replies from more than 900 showed only 45.7 percent supported the President's war policy, with opinions about equally divided between those favoring a stepped-up war and those opposed to the war.

But the poll also showed an overwhelming majority of the 1964 delegates support Johnson for re-election.

As for Republican presidential prospects, 54.8 per cent of the Democratic delegates replying to the newspaper survey listed New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller as the strongest possible opponent. Trailing well behind were former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, California Gov. Ronald Reagan and Gov. George Romney of Michigan.

The Gallup Poll meanwhile said the Vietnam war was named the strongest single issue the Republicans could use in the 1968 campaign by the 1,898 local GOP leaders throughout the

Bomb Scare Is All a Hoax

WASHINGTON (AP) — The basketball game between Georgetown and Syracuse was interrupted for 39 minutes in the first half Tuesday night while police searched for a bomb reportedly planted in McDonough Gym.

None was found. Syracuse went on to win 95-78.

Greek Crisis Reaches a Turning Point

ATHENS (AP) — Greece's political crisis appeared today to be reaching a turning point after King Constantine said he would return if the junta announced a firm timetable for restoration of democracy.

The 27-year-old monarch's condition appeared easy for the ruling junta to accept. He called for an "acceptable date" for publication of a new constitution, an early date for a national referendum on it and assurances to the Greek people that they will be able to elect a new government.

Constantine did not stipulate what should be in the constitution, what his powers should be or when the election should be held.

A draft constitution is to be presented to it Saturday — a constitution sharply reducing the king's powers.

The three ruling colonels who came to power in a coup last April 21 resigned Wednesday from the army, clearing the way for them to run as civilians in the elections they have promised. But there was no indication the action would diminish their grip on Greece.

Speaking to newsmen in Rome Wednesday after five days of negotiation with the junta, Constantine said he did not oppose the April coup because he wanted to avoid bloodshed, and he stayed in Greece for eight months because he hoped he could convince the junta to return to democracy.

But, he said, a "deviation" in the junta's avowed intention to do this became clear and he tried to call the 8 million Greeks into a counter-coup Dec. 13. It never really got started and he fled to Rome.

"I decided to act," he said, "I did not succeed... Let us be perfectly realistic, I have no actual power at my command now. But I do have behind my purpose the desire of every Greek to live in freedom."

Never Know Strength of Enemy

WASHINGTON (AP) — "We just don't know how many Viet Cong there are in South Vietnam," says a veteran military officer who holds a key Pentagon staff post and has seen both field and staff duty in Vietnam.

This officer, who asked that his name not be used, was long involved in the frustrating effort to get a reliable count of enemy strength in South Vietnam.

His view was echoed by other officers who have wrestled with the problem.

They acknowledged that some of the estimates roll down to educated guessing, based on analysis of intelligence gathered from captured documents, interrogation of prisoners and defectors, and reports from Vietnamese and U.S. sources.

Recent estimates have ranged from a low of 223,000 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong up to 400,000-plus.

Much depends on the terms of reference — whether those doing the estimating count only Communist soldiers or whether they add political cadre as well, whether they count regular and guerrilla soldiers or also include the much more shadowy "secret self-defense forces."

About a month ago, after better than a year of refining methods and studies, the U.S. intelligence community came up with what it regards as the most reasonable estimate of enemy strength.

The U.S. Command in Saigon announced Nov. 24 that it now
